Prohibition of Political Signs at Selected Town Facilities

Whereas the Selectboard is authorized per RSA 41:11-a I “to manage all real property owned by the town and to regulate its use”; and

Whereas the Selectboard wants to avoid any appearance of the Town supporting any particular candidate(s); and

Whereas political signs at Town facilities can obscure the lines of sight for motorists and pedestrians;

The Selectboard hereby prohibits, effective August 27, 2018, any political signs in or on the grounds of the following Town facilities:

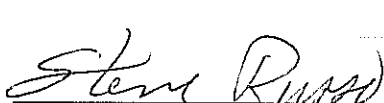

- Town Hall – 1 Main Street
- Fire Station – 4 Bond Street
- Safety Complex – 3 Post Office Drive
- Annex – 4 Main Street
- Library – 16 Main Street
- Chapel/Brusch Hall – 36 Main Street
- Brookline Ball Park – Frances Drive
- The Grove – Mason Road
- Between the Transfer Station and Public Works Entrances – N. Mason Road

Per RSA 664:17, any signs that are removed by town maintenance or law enforcement personnel will be held at the Town Administrator’s office until one week following the election so a candidate may retrieve them, after which time the signs will be discarded.
